First, here's a current draft of chapter one of the RDX assessment:

you'll need to use that for getting a handle on the different projects.

Hi Lou,

Can you go over the non-evidence table projects for Mefruz and I again? Last Thursday we were talking about the RDX projects you gave us and realized that we don't remember what all of the assignments are, or which papers we are supposed to be looking for in the link below. Could we meet one more time to discuss this with you again, and write everything down? Or would you mind putting it all in an email? That would be really helpful.

Thanks,
Kelly

Hi Mefruz and Kelly,

Here's the address for the RDX folder on the share drive:

Personal Matters / Ex. 6

Within that folder, there's another folder called "RDX References" You can look there for papers, as well as on HERO (once you have access).
